Clause(s)

6 - Medical expenses homeland - limited

In derogation of article 13.1 it has been agreed that this module will not provide any cover if the expenses incurred as a result of an accident or job-related injury or job-related illness, which is considered equivalent to an accident, are recoverable from another insurance or pursuant to a social security scheme or statutory regulation. Job-related illnesses are understood to be diseases contracted in connection with the employment and which are considered equivalent to an accident during the employment. These illnesses are specified in a list laid down by Dutch law.
